

Canada

The Canadian Embassy in Stockholm, in cooperation with Sweden Bio and Stockholm Science City Foundation, welcome you to a breakfast seminar about the opportunities in Canada's Life Sciences sector and the regulatory framework for biopharmaceuticals and functional foods.

Date: Friday, February 12th, 2010, 08.00-12.00

Venue: Hotel Hilton Slussen, Guldgränd 8

Moderator: Ylva Williams, CEO, Stockholm Science City Foundation

Program

- 08.00 – 08.30 Breakfast Buffet – Canadian style
- 08.30 – 08.35 Welcoming remarks by Alexandra Volkoff, Ambassador of Canada to Sweden
- 08.35 – 09.10 Cheryl Holden, Global Practice Lead Canada, “Canada’s Life Sciences Framework – an overview”
- 09.10 – 09.45 Cathy Parker, Director, Biologics and Genetic Therapies, Health Canada, “Health Canada’s approach to regulating new therapeutics”
- 09.45 – 10.00 Coffee break
- 10.00 – 10.35 Keith Francis, Head of Medical and Scientific Affairs Bayer Canada and Europe “Clinical Research and Trials Opportunities in Canada”
- 10.35 – 11. 10 Robert Ford, Partner, Gowlings “Getting to market faster, with lower costs by Partnering with Canada”
- 11.10 – 12.00 Time one-on-one meetings with the speakers, please indicate interest when registering for the event.

R.S.V.P by Feb 5th, 2010 to Annika Malmberg, Canadian Embassy in Stockholm
Annika.malmberg@international.gc.ca or tel: (08)-453 30 17

The seminar is free of charge